Welcome to Richland County!

Start your tour in the state's capital. Your first stop is down in Five Points, the perfect place to grab some brunch at The Gourmet Shop or a delicious latte at Drip Coffee. Afterward, you'll head to Main Street, where you can take a tour of the State House grounds or shop at the famous Mast General Store downtown before checking out the two murals in the area.

Saluda County loves you to peaches!

Did you know that South Carolina is the # supplier of peaches? Saluda County wants to remind you of that. While you make your way into this part of the region, prepare your tastebuds for peachy treats, like homemade ice cream, pies, and more from Peaches and Such at 3771 SC-23, Monetta, SC, right down the road from the next mural stop. After that, you'll head to the Old Town Treaty mural, which holds a lot of history behind its art as it depicts the meeting between Native Americans and the governor, handing over their land.
